

VILLA DEFIES NEW MEXICAN RULERS

Demands That Provisional Government Tell What It Proposes to Do.

HOLDS BRITISH SUBJECT

Leader Said to Have Demanded Ransom of $50,000 for Mining Man.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. Washington, May 21.—Francisco Villa, former leader of Mexican revolutionary activities, suddenly became active in Mexico today and disturbed prospects for a peaceful settlement of the revolution which has driven Carranza out of office.

Villa is reported as having in the past a small band of followers, ready to assist his forces whenever he should lead them.

It was reported as rumored in the past that Carranza had ordered the arrest of Villa, but that Carranza had been unable to do so.

Reports from Mexico City indicate that Carranza is still in large and is reported to be in flight through the mountains in the state of Puebla in an effort to reach the town of Vera Cruz and the coast.

Representatives of the provisional government were reported to have been in the city of Carranza, and it is reported that Carranza is still in large and is reported to be in flight through the mountains in the state of Puebla in an effort to reach the town of Vera Cruz and the coast.

lain "obligations" with Villa have been fulfilled, after which, the message said, he will proceed to Parral.

JIMENEZ, Mexico, May 21.—Gen. Calles, who arrived here late today, says he is prepared to fight Francisco Villa if necessary to bring the bandit chieftain to terms.

The Calles troops include cavalry, infantry and artillery. About 6,000 troops were left in Chihuahua City, 1,300 cavalry at Santa Rosalia, 1,300 cavalry and infantry at Parral, 600 cavalry are on the way to Ojita and 300 infantry are expected to arrive at Camargo tomorrow.

It wasn't until Mr. Harris's attorney began to examine her that Mrs. Harris recalled that the choking had been an incident of one of her husband's nightmares and that he did not get awake until after he had choked her for ten minutes.

"That's a nightmare and cannot be used," other charges were denied by Harris and the suit was dismissed.
